3. Efforts are being made to advance several covert training projects scheduled for February if the trainees can be made available. Need for rescheduling was brought about because six projects with planned beginning dates of 4 or 11 January have been postponed or cancelled since the first of the year.

4. Four students from the Office of the Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2, were enrolled in the current weekly Indoctrination Program. Beginning next week, the Office of Naval Intelligence will be represented. Two Department of State employees are enrolled in the Reading Improvement Course.

5. Plans are progressing for the second senior-level presentation of the Human Resources Program. Programs are scheduled for two groups in DD/A and three groups in O/TR. Additional programs will soon be planned for the Office of Scientific Intelligence and the Office of Current Intelligence in DD/I, the PM and PI Staffs of DD/P, the Office of Communications, and the Security Office.

6. Word has been received that Second Lt. [REDACTED] USA, a Junior Officer trainee, will receive the Robert Patterson Award in February from the Secretary of War in honor of his being chosen as the outstanding O.C.E. candidate of 1953.
